

For the first time in years, I don't have to be bothered by telemarketers intruding in my private life. I urge you do not weaken the NJ DO NOT CALL law.

Furthermore, I would like the same done for emails. Make it against the law for emails from companies and especially porn emails to be sent.